

Kudos for young entrepreneur

I am grateful for the recognition.

—RAY BEH WENG WEI

A YOUNG entrepreneur from Penang has received RM500 and a certificate from the Penang Government for winning a reputable award in Singapore.

Ray Beh Weng Wei, 25, who received the money and certificate from Chief Minister Lim Guan Eng in Komtar, said he was grateful for the recognition by the state.

Beh is the founder of Frambie (www.frambie.com) that provides personalised picture frames to suit clients' requirements.

"My award-winning idea is an easy-to-use platform allowing customers to pick each element individually to create a picture frame that matches their tastes.

"After placing an order, they will have the product delivered to their doorsteps," he said yesterday.

Beh won the Young Entrepreneur Award in Singapore in February this year.

The award was presented by MediaCorp and Canon Singapore and Beh walked away with S$5,000 (RM12,500) as start-up capital and S$10,000 (RM25,000) worth of Canon products.

Frambie was a finalist in the Intel DST Asia Pacific Challenge 2012 held in Bangalore, India, in August.
